Training Services Profile

WHO WE ARE?

Deriving powerful solutions for a digital future.

Knowledge Corporation (KCORP) is a solutions provider harnessing the power of knowledge for technological and digital advancements. With its roots in Saudi Arabia and UAE, KCORP promotes client convenience by offering a variety of services and products under one umbrella.

From content and technology to event management services, we deliver personalized solutions tackling modern-day challenges.

OUR ORIGIN

Knowledge Corporation is an offspring company of the Gulf Research Center.

The Gulf Research Center is a privately funded, non-partisan think tank, providing education and consultancy services in the Arabian Gulf region since 2000.

WHAT WE DO?

Bringing you
closer to your vision.

Bigger Impact. Better Results.

We form a synergy between knowledge-based systems and information and communications technology to empower our clients with specific solutions.

With our integrated approach, we bring the power of our people, our valued content, and cutting-edge technology together to create solutions based on knowledge.

HISTORY

10+ years of local and multinational experience.

Our well-established experience in the Gulf region forms the foundation of our extraordinary story. We began with knowledge systems and communications technology to uplift our people with solutions catering to their specific needs. We became one of the most unique firms by extending our services into the event management industry and earning a well-reputed name across the region.

WHO DO WE WORK WITH?

ICORP empowers businesses, government entities, and organizations to seek greater opportunities with knowledge-intensive services. We work closely with private and public organizations looking to enhance their performance with better solutions, event management strategies, and integrated services.
